It intended to say that instead of his being a candidate for the lower house, he was in the race for assessor, but the types made it auditor instead. Now this matter has get to be adjusted sooner or inter. Mr. C. E. Angell is a candidate for the office of county assessor, and is making a good fight for the place. He has a following of friends who want him elected for the position and expect him to get the nomination. Again, it was tanounced that Neils Lind of West Jordan was a candidate for the lower house. This gentleman's name is Linn. The Herald has it on the statement of Deputy Sheriff Gulbransen that that is the way he spells his name. N. H. Hallstrom of Sandy is also a candidate and stands a very good show of being one of the men nominated from the county outside.

Condie May Sing.

Down in the Second precinct there is a rumor prevailing to the effect that, despite all that has been said concerning his probable action during campaign, Peter Condie has serious tentions of once more trying to sing himself into the sheriff's office. This means there will be harmony in the party. Peter can sing, if nothing else.
